DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The affidavit filed on 3/31/04 under 37 CFR 1.131 is sufficient to overcome the Chottiner and Haga references.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1, 5, 6, 10 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by WO98/05882 to Pels et al. (hereinafter Pels).

Pels discloses an electric machine 4 comprising a hub 18 connectable to a crankshaft 16 of an engine 2; a transmission 6; a rotor 14 connected to the hub; a stator 10, and an elastomeric material 22 disposed between the hub and the rotor.

With regards to claim 6 and 11, Pels discloses that the electric machine 4 could be used as a generator and/or starter (column 7, lines 52-67).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
5. Claims 2-4, 7-9 and 12-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pels.

Art Unit: 2834

Pels discloses the claimed invention including a flange, but is silent regarding the hub being press-fitted onto the end of the crankshaft and held thereto by a bolt. Those skilled in the art would know that press fitting technique and the use of a bolt for the purpose of securing a connection are well known in the art. Furthermore, selecting a suitable method for securing a connection is a matter of design choice. It would have been obvious at the time of the invention was made to disclose the use of the bolt for the purpose of providing a secure and firm connection of the hub to the shaft.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. See PTO-892.

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
